Barbara Krantz Jenkins Mixed Media Workshop

Barbara works in oil, pastels and watercolor on occasion and she prefers the control, blending quality and convenience of the dry painting medium of professional grade colored pencil pigments (oil-based, water-based, and/or wax-based), often over fine ink contour lines. Her love of line is clear in her work. Some say that as she applies her pigments, her subjects spring to life, right off the surface of the paper!
